MRS. WILLIAM L. WANAMAKER
... Repeats Vows

Patricia Lewis Exchanges Vows with Wm. Wanamaker

Patricia Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence F. Lewis, 25233 Denny Rd., became the bride of William Lawrence Wanamaker, son of Mrs. Ed Urban, 17608 Cranbrook Ave., Sept. 9.

The two exchanged rings in an informal church ceremony at the First Methodist Church with the Rev. Don J. Shelby officiating.

The bride chose a white street-length dress of brocade with matching accessories. She wore a white orchid.

Only the immediate family of the couple was present for the ceremony.

The couple will make their home in Torrance and both will continue their studies at North High School.

PARTY IN PATIO

Mrs. Emma M. Evans, 1024 Portola Ave., entertained a group of friends Saturday at the buffet supper in the patio. Attending were Messrs. and Mmes. Eugene Meyn, Gordon Mothersell, Bill Cox, Clyde Satterfield, A. D. Davis, Joseph Galera, Mrs. Margaret Radyciff, Bob Halliwell and son Bob and daughter Kathy.

Barbecue Staged for Play Group

Members of Accent Theatre and their friends spent a gay evening recently at a steak barbecue held at the home of Dr. Mal Segenkahn.

The patio setting was lovely with the surrounding garden and colored lights overhead. Music and dancing was enjoyed in the adjoining den.

Those attending were Messrs. and Mmes. Dick Beecher, Frank Heller, Claude Wheeler, Bill Boswell, Lou Dyer, Paul Harestad, Bob Johnson, Frank Kelley, Bob Kelsey, Bob Pickett, Eric Swanson, Leo Tuscon, Curt Mobley, Warren Lavendar, Dick O'Neill, Henry Heinlein, Charles Gray.

Also attending were Drs. and Mmes. Mel Bauman, John Tippin and Allen Pyeatt.

Others there were Pat Benet, Pat Cantle, Lou Ehrlich, Flo Nelson, Nadine Nickel, Charlene French, Julia Sagenkahn, Cay Kellogg, Leo Oberholzer and Warren Deiter.

DINNER DANCING

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Dyer, 2833 Onrado Ave., joined Dr. and Mrs. Don Franks of Rolling Hills for an evening of dinner and dancing last Saturday night.

Local Coed To Resume SC Studies

Linda Thistle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Thistle, 1614 Acacia Ave., will resume studies at the University of Southern California Monday.

LINDA THISTLE
... Active Coed

A 1956 graduate of Torrance High School, she will be a new member of Spurs — national women's sophomore honorary. She also will serve as president of Alpha Lambda Delta.

women's scholastic honorary for academic achievement during the freshman year, and will be affiliated with the Associated Women Students' Cabinet and the YWCA Council.

During her freshman year she was one of 25 girls selected to the Freshman Women's Council.

The local coed is attending USC on a four-year scholarship.

Local Church Society Holds Get-together

Women's Society of the First Methodist Church, began its new year at the general meeting held Sept. 12 at the church. The business session was presided over by Mrs. C. P. Olson, president.

Mrs. John Almond, Mrs. Lois Balsley, and Mrs. Russell O'Hare reported on the School of Missions held at Redlands University in August. Mrs. Russell Baxton gave highlights of the bus trip taken by 24 members of the Society to Methodist projects in the area on Aug. 29.

A playlet, "The Brush Broom Spirit," was presented by Mrs. C. P. Olson, Mrs. Roy Goree, and Mrs. Harold Hutchison.

The speaker of the day was Mrs. A. L. Young, jurisdictional secretary of missionary education, who had recently returned from a trip to Alaska. She gave an account of Woman's Society work there.

Following the luncheon served by Ruth Circle a brief Prayer fellowship was conducted by Mrs. King McFadden, spiritual life secretary.

Home Again

Mr. and Mrs. Harris C. Moore, Sr., of Hollywood Riviera have returned home following a month-long vacation tour of the United States.

The couple left on the Dometliner for Detroit where they picked up a new car and then motored to Akron, Ohio to visit Mr. Moore's sister. Other stops were made in Niagara Falls, New York City, Norfolk and Virginia Beach.

They visited Mrs. Moore's mother in Fort Lauderdale before continuing on to New Orleans, then started home on Route 66.

MRS. KENT L. HARDING
... Becomes Bride

Cox-Harding Nuptials Performed in Church

Soft candlelight illuminated the altar of the First Methodist Church as Sue Ann Cox and Kent L. Harding were united in marriage.

The Rev. Donald J. Shelby officiated at the evening ritual Sept. 12.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Mildred Adams of Torrance and Howard A. Cox, of Ottumwa, Iowa; Mrs. Emma Harding of Gardena and Lloyd Harding of East Rochester, New York, are parents of the bridegroom.

As the wedding processional was played Mr. Cox escorted his daughter down the aisle. The bride chose a gown of nylon net ornamented with pearls and sequins. She carried sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Colleen Davis, the bride's sister, served as matron of honor. She dressed in pink lace and carried white carnations and pink roses. Baskets of white and pink flowers decorated the church.

Bill Siefert was best man and ushers were Bob Robinson and J. Gene Walker. Sally Robinson registered guests.

Sally Bridgeman sang "Because" and was accompanied by Mrs. Ruth White at the organ.

A reception followed the ceremony at the church.

The bride is a graduate of Torrance High School and her new husband attended schools in Dansville, N.Y., and El Camino College.

Following a honeymoon the two are now making their home at 18750 S. Vermont.

Youngsters To Continue Club Meetings

Blue Bird Leader Mary McCormick announces that the Silver Blue Birds, students of Evelyn Carr Elementary School, will resume their weekly meetings Thursday at 1:30 at her home.

Mrs. McCormick will have Mrs. Ann Liberti as her assistant this year.

The Silver Blue Birds attended their first Blue Bird Day Camp in July at Torrance Park. The girls are looking forward to their first part of the school PTA program in October.

These girls will lead the pledge to the flag: Devra Dempster, Lynn Fenton, Peggy Kramer, Barbara Liberti, Karin McCormick, Kathy Ralls and Linda Vance.

Miss Cynthia Keyes will speak at the PTA meeting at which time she will give a short history of the Camp Fire program.

WHITNEYS RETURN

Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Whitney, 3318 Torrance Blvd., returned Monday following a wonderful two weeks' stay in Hawaii. Making the trip with the Whitneys were Mr. and Mrs. Dean Sears who are still vacationing in the islands.
